Register With Us!

Registering with Employment Services of Weld County is the first step toward taking advantage of the many resources and services that are available to you at no cost. Registration can be achieved through one of the following methods:

- Come into our office and use our Resource Room to “self-register” with office staff assistance
- Online at www.connectingcolorado.com
- Schedule a desk-side appointment with staff

Plan an estimated 30 minutes to complete your registration.

When you have finished your registration, you can begin matching your skills with job openings in our statewide employment database.

What’s Next?

When an employer contacts our office with a job opening, a computerized search through the database is conducted. Applicants whose skills, education and experience match the job requirements will be contacted via email. Providing an email address is strongly encouraged in order to be informed of job openings, hiring events and job fairs. Job recommendations can also be viewed by logging on to individual applicant accounts.

Check Current Job Postings

- www.connectingcolorado.com
- Call the Job Line at (970) 353-3800

When you call the Job Line, listen to the recorded message. Dial any of the following extensions to hear a list of jobs in that category, then write down the job number of all positions in which you are interested.

- Ext. 3469: Special Events
- Ext. 3470: Professional/Technical Jobs
- Ext. 3471: Service Jobs
- Ext. 3472: New Jobs
- Ext. 3473: General Labor Jobs

Stay Updated

Make sure to keep your account up to date, including address, phone number and job interest. Your account will become inactive if you do not log in within a three month period. Visit the Resource Room to update your application or do so online at www.connectingcolorado.com. Resource Room staff can provide assistance in updating your application.

Unemployment

If you are an Unemployment Insurance Claimant, you will meet part of your work search requirements by registering with a local workforce center in person or online at www.connectingcolorado.com.
